2023-2024 Graduate Teaching Assistantship In CHORAL CONDUCTING

DUTIES: Assist with the conducting and administration of the University of Tennessee choral ensembles.

STIPEND: Up to $7,950 plus tuition waiver and medical coverage.

See: music.utk.edu/grad/admissions

WEB: music.utk.edu/choral

TO APPLY: Application materials and audition requirements may be obtained by contacting:

Dr. Angela Batey
Director of Graduate Studies
The University of Tennessee
School of Music
1741 Volunteer Boulevard
Knoxville, Tennessee 37996-2600
Phone: 865-974-3331
Fax: 865-974-1941
E-mail: music@utk.edu

The University of Tennessee, with an enrollment of 28,000 students, is centrally located in a region of exceptional scenic, historical, and recreational interest. The School of Music is housed in the beautiful state-of-the-art Natalie L. Haslam Music Center, and offers the Master of Music degree with concentrations in choral conducting, collaborative piano, composition, instrumental conducting, jazz studies, music education, music theory, musicology, and performance (organ, piano, strings, voice, winds or percussion). Artist Certificate programs are offered in brass, keyboard, percussion, strings, voice, and woodwinds. The Certificate in music theory pedagogy is offered for students enrolled in a graduate degree program.

DR. ANGELA BATEY
Director of Choral Studies
abatey@utk.edu